Monarchs of Britain 1603-present - A Bit About Britain
At the end of that era, the monarchy was more popular (and loved) than it had ever been and Victoria was pretty much the matriarch of Europe – as well as being Empress. Alexandrina Victoria was a dutiful 18 year old when she became queen. Her husband, Prince Albert of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha, was a huge influence on her, as well as on Britain, and they had an extremely happy marriage which
